Come and join us, and experience the joy of Jewish music.

Hebrew liturgy or secular, Yiddish, Ladino: Sounds from the heart to the heart

KolHakavod sings in Hebrew, Yiddish, English and Ladino. Our choir is strong of more than 25 members (male only, to allow us to sing in synagoggs). We rehearse every Monday at 7:45pm for 90 minutes at the Chabad UC center (corner of Genesee and Governor.) Please come to listen, enjoy, or even join a fun group of happy people, gathered to add soul & spirit to any audience

Mission statement

Kol Hakavod (aka The San Diego Jewish Men's Choir), under the direction of Rhoda Gaylis, has been singing together since 1998. The choir is not affiliated with any synagogue or religious movement, but subscribes to Jewish traditions and is available to sing at any Jewish wedding or other life cycle event.

Our website will list all our repertoire (so far), and will provide some video and recording of our past performances
